Mr. SACKETT, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Rebecca Freeman, widow of Pearson Freeman, report :

That the facts in this case are truly stated in the report of the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made August 8, 1848; and they adopt that report, and bring in a bill for the relief of the petitioner accordingly.

AUGUST 8, 1848.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom were referred the petition and papers of Rebecca Freeman, widow of Pearson Freeman, report :

That the proof in this case shows that the said Pearson Freeman's name was placed on the list of revolutionary pensions on the 30th day of July, 1834, at the rate of eight dollars per month ; that he drew said pension until the 27th day of January, 1847, when he died, leaving the petitioner his widow, to whom he had been married on the 26th day of July, 1790, and with her lived as her husband from the time of said marriage until the time of his death aforesaid. The proof further shows, that the petitioner is yet the widow of said Pearson Freeman. Your committee, therefore, report a bill for her relief.

Mr. Secretary, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, make the following

REPORT

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom were referred the petition of Rebecca Freeman, widow of Pearson Freeman, report that the facts in this case are truly stated in the report of the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made August 8, 1848, and they submit that it is proper and proper in a bill for the relief of the petitioner accordingly.

August 8, 1848

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom were referred the petition and papers of Rebecca Freeman, widow of Pearson Freeman, report:

That the proof in this case shows that the said Pearson Freeman's name was placed on the list of revolutionary pensioners on the 30th day of July, 1841, at the rate of eight dollars per month; that the said pensioner died on the 21st day of January, 1847, when he died, leaving the petitioner his widow, to whom he had been married on the 26th day of July, 1799, and with her lived as her husband from the time of said marriage until the time of his death aforesaid. The proof further shows that the petitioner is yet the widow of said Pearson Freeman. Your committee therefore report a bill for her relief.
